Baby Playtime

Tuesday, March 7 & 14 @ 11:00 AM

Come enjoy a half hour of fun with your baby! We'll share songs, finger plays, stories, and rhymes.

This program is intended for babies ages 0-18 months and will be held in the program room on our main level. Siblings are welcome, and registration is only required once for the series.

Family Story & Playtime

Wednesday, March 1, 8, & 15 @ 10:30 AM

Thursday, March 2, 9, & 16 @ 10:30 AM

Join us for an indoor story and playtime! We'll share songs and rhymes, books, and lots of movement. This program will be hosted in the program room on our main level. Families are encouraged to bring a blanket to sit on, but it's not necessary as we will be on a carpeted floor. This program is for toddlers, preschoolers, and their families. Registration is required, and only one registration is necessary for the series (even if you don't plan to attend them all.) Registration information is used to call in case of a cancellation.

Block Party

Explore our block and toy collection in the company of others! The program room will be set up for Block Party on Wednesday, March 1 from 4:30 to 6:30 PM. This is a drop-in program for children of all ages, but we ask for registration so we know you're coming!

Robotics & Coding Club

Engage with a variety of tools to develop your skills in robotics, coding, and programming. This self-guided program is available on Monday, March 20 from 4:30 to 6:30 PM. This is a drop-in program for children of all ages, but we ask for registration so we know you're coming.

Natureology: Birds

Small to large, these feathered creatures eat more, breathe more, and know more than we ever thought possible. They're SMART! Even better, they're the grandkids of dinosaurs! Learn more about the beautiful birds all around us with Tony Palermo at Natureology on Tuesday, March 14 from 5:30 to 6:30 PM. This program is for children of all ages, and registration is required.

Outdoor Egg Hunt

Join us at the library for an outdoor event on Thursday, April 6 at 5:00 PM to search for eggs! Bring your basket and wear shoes comfortable for walking on grass or wet surfaces. We will hide eggs around the library's grounds. This event is weather permitting, in case of heavy rain we will try to meet the following day on Friday, April 7 instead. For children of all ages and their families. Registration is required.

to participate, and a librarian will email you an invitation link to join. Discord Game Night will be every Tuesday & Wednesday evening, March 7 through 28, at 7:00 PM. Please check the calendar or go online to see this month's upcoming themes!

Hospice Care

Most people don't have a good understanding of what hospice care truly is. Hospice care can help people stay in their homes and give them options for care. Join us on Monday, March 6 from 6:30 to 7:30 PM to learn about the little-known hospice benefits that are available under Medicare and most insurance plans. Learning information before you need it makes you empowered to make your own choices and decisions. Registration is required.

What To Know About CPR

Bystanders make all the difference when someone is having a medical emergency. Come join us on Saturday, March 11 from 1:00 to 2:00 PM to learn Hands Only CPR, see a demonstration of how easy an AED is to use, and learn how to recognize a heart attack and stroke. Representatives from Richland EMS will be facilitating this program and will be happy to answer your questions. This program is not a CPR certification class. Registration is required.

Senior Fraud & Scam Awareness

In the year 2021 in Allegheny County, over 12,000 people lost nearly 8 million dollars from various scams. A thief can come at you in many ways: by phone, mail, at your door, and on the internet. Hear from Senior Advocate Joseph Giuffré on Monday, March 27 from 5:30 to 6:30 PM as he talks all things senior justice and how you can prevent your family members and yourself from becoming victims of defrauding and scamming efforts. Registration is required.

Online Genealogy

Get to know your family and your family's family better with this in-person program about online genealogy on Wednesday, March 29 at 5:30 PM. Whether you're new to genealogy or simply seeking to learn more about the sources of information that are available, join us as we review research databases and resources such as Cyndi's List and Family Search Wiki. There will be a limit of 25 attendees, so advance registration and payment is required. Please note that adjustments may be made (and if needed, cancelation) in regards to everyone's safety.

Bridget's Book Club

A charmingly eccentric hotel maid discovers a guest murdered in their bed. Solving the mystery will turn her once orderly world upside down in this utterly original debut. A Clue-like, locked-room mystery and a heartwarming journey of the spirit, this novel explores what it means to be the same as everyone else and yet entirely different—and reveals that all mysteries can be solved through connection to the human heart. Join us on Wednesday, March 8 from 6:30 to 8:00 PM for a discussion of The Maid by Nita Prose.

Nonfiction Book Discussion

Adam Grant examines the critical art of rethinking: learning to question your opinions and open other people's minds, which can position you for excellence at work and wisdom in life. Think Again reveals that we don't have to believe everything we think or internalize everything we feel. It's an invitation to let go of views that are no longer serving us well and prize mental flexibility, humility, and curiosity over foolish consistency. If knowledge is power, knowing what we don't know is wisdom. Join us on Tuesday, March 21 at 1:00 PM for a discussion of Think Again by Adam Grant.

Technology Help

Get help with technology! In these one-on-one, 30-minute sessions we can focus on basic skills in using computers, smartphones, eReaders, and more.

Wednesdays, March 1 - 29, 2:00 - 4:00 PM

Thursdays, March 2, 9, 23 & 30, 10:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Registration is required. Please include the specific topics you need assistance with during registration.

Town Hall with Representative Mercuri

Come join State Representative Rob Mercuri on Wednesday, March 15 from 7:00 to 8:00 PM as we discuss the issues that mean the most to our communities and Commonwealth.

Conversation Group

The Conversation Group is a place to share ideas and hear what others have to say. Spirited conversation is guaranteed! Join us on the library's lower level on Thursday, March 9 from 1:00 to 3:00 PM. For additional information, please email: cdstorrs@gmail.com.

Knit Lit

Knit Lit will be trying a new day and time this month. We will be meeting on Saturday, March 25 from 1:30 to 3:30 PM. Knitters, crocheters, and yarn art enthusiasts are welcome to join us on the lower level in the Kemerer Reading Room. If you are working on a project, bring it along with you! We'll talk about life, books we've read, and projects we're never going to finish. Hope to see you then! Registration is required.

Friends of the Library

The Friends of the Northern Tier Library will meet on Tuesday, March 7 from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM. The Friends sponsor our annual Used Book Sale and many other programs in support of the library. New members are welcome to join us!

Library Hours

The Pine Center will be closed on Monday, March 27 for a Pine-Richland High School in-service day.

The Northern Tier Library aims to provide resources that inspire, inform, educate, and entertain the public.
